Storytelling in the New Hollywood Kristin Thompson, 1999 The Way Hollywood Tells It David Bordwell, 2006-04-10
Hollywood moviemaking is one of the constants of American life but how much has it changed since the glory days of the big studios David Bordwell argues that the principles of visual storytelling created in the studio era are alive and well even in today's bloated blockbusters American filmmakers have created a durable tradition one that we should not be ashamed to call artistic and one that survives in both mainstream entertainment and niche marketed indie cinema Bordwell traces the continuity of this tradition in a wide array of films made since 1960 from romantic comedies like Jerry Maguire and Love Actually to more imposing efforts like A Beautiful Mind He also draws upon testimony from writers directors and editors who are acutely conscious of employing proven principles of plot and visual style Within the limits of the classical approach innovation can flourish Bordwell examines how imaginative filmmakers have pushed the premises of the system in films such as JFK Memento and Magnolia He discusses generational technological and economic factors leading to stability and change in Hollywood cinema and includes close analyses of selected shots and sequences As it ranges across four decades examining classics like American Graffiti and The Godfather as well as recent success like The Lord of the Rings The Two Towers this book provides a vivid and engaging interpretation of how Hollywood moviemakers have created a vigorous resourceful tradition of cinematic storytelling that continues to engage audiences around the world Connection Randy Olson, Dorie Barton, Brian Palermo, 2013 The power and importance of storytelling is now widely accepted but this book goes further to focus on storymaking CONNECTION brings together a former scientist a story consultant and an improv actor to give you the critical thinking of science combined with a century of Hollywood knowledge in the creation and shaping of stories The material is relevant to lawyers politicians public health workers educators activists everyone In today's Twitterfied world CONNECTION provides the narrative tools for effective communication Reinventing Hollywood David Bordwell, 2017-10-02 Introduction the way Hollywood told it The frenzy of five fat years Interlude Spring 1940 lessons from our town The Best Story Wins Matthew Luhn, 2018-08-07 How to use the principles of Pixar style storytelling to meet the needs of entrepreneurs marketers and business minded storytellers of all stripes Pixar movies have transfixed viewers around the world and stirred a hunger in creative and corporate realms to adopt new and more impactful ways of telling stories Former Pixar and The Simpsons animator and story artist Matthew Luhn translates his two and half decades of storytelling techniques and concepts to the CEOs advertisers marketers and creatives in the business world and beyond A combination of Luhn s personal stories and storytelling insights The Best Story Wins retells the Hero s Journey story building methods through the lens of the Pixar films to help business minds embrace the power of storytelling for themselves Award winning Pixar storyteller artist and writer Matthew Luhn has a message for CEOs marketers and business professionals to capture your audience s attention you need to hook them with a great story Seattlepi.com Robert Altman and the Elaboration of Hollywood Storytelling Mark Minett,2021 Robert Altman and the Elaboration of Hollywood Storytelling reveals an Altman barely glimpsed in previous critical accounts of the filmmaker This re examination of his seminal work during the Hollywood Renaissance or New Hollywood period of the early 1970s including M A S H Brewster McCloud McCabe Mrs Miller Images The Long Goodbye Thieves Like Us California Split and Nashville sheds new light on both the films and the filmmaker reframing Altman as a complex pragmatic innovator whose work exceeds but is also grounded in the norms of classical Hollywood storytelling rather than someone who rejected those norms in favor of modernist art cinema Its findings and approach hold important implications for the study of cinematic authorship Largely avoiding thematic exegesis it employs an historical poetics approach robust functionalist frameworks archival research and formal and statistical analysis to demystify the essential features of the standard account of Altman s filmmaking history and profile lax narrative form heavy reliance on the zoom sound design replete with overlapping dialogue improvisational infidelity to the screenplay and a desire to subvert based in his time in the training grounds of industrial filmmaking and filmed television The book provides a clear example of how a filmmaker might work collaboratively and pragmatically within and across media institutions to elaborate upon their sanctioned practices and aims We misunderstand Altman s work and the creative work of Hollywood filmmakers in general when we insist on describing innovation as opposition to institutional norms and on describing those norms as simply assimilating innovation Hollywood Stories Stephen Schochet,2010 Just when you thought you ve heard everything about Hollywood comes a totally original new book a special blend of biography history and lore Hollywood Stories is packed with wild wonderful short tales about famous stars movies directors and many others who have been part of the world s most fascinating unpredictable industry Full of funny moments and twist endings Hollywood Stories features an amazing icons and will keep you totally entertained New Hollywood Cinema Geoff King,2002-03-29 New Hollywood extends from the radical gestures of the Hollywood Renaissance of the late 1960s and early 1970s to the current dominance of the corporate blockbuster Geoff King covers new Hollywood dynamically and accessibly in this thoroughly modern introductory text He discusses diverse films as well as the film makers and film companies focusing on the interactions between the film texts their social contexts and the industry producing them Using examples across Hollywood and its genres King reveals how the positions of studios within media conglomerates together with the impact of television advertising and franchising on the New Hollywood shape the form and content of the films Narrative and Narration Warren Buckland, 2020-12-15 From mainstream blockbusters to art house cinema narrative and narration are the driving forces that organize a film Yet attempts to explain these forces are often mired in notoriously complex terminology and dense theory Warren Buckland provides a clear and accessible introduction that explains how narrative and narration work using straightforward language Narrative and Narration distills the basic components of cinematic storytelling into a set of core concepts narrative structure processes of narration and narrative agents The book opens with a discussion of the emergence of narrative and narration in early cinema and proceeds to illustrate key ideas through numerous case studies Each chapter guides readers through different methods that they can use to analyze cinematic storytelling Buckland also discusses how departures from traditional modes such as feminist narratives art cinema and unreliable narrators can complicate and corroborate the book's understanding of narrative and narration Examples include mainstream films both classic and contemporary art house films of every stripe and two relatively new styles of cinematic storytelling the puzzle film and those driven by a narrative logic derived from video games Narrative and Narration is a concise introduction that provides readers with fundamental tools to understand cinematic storytelling

Storytelling in World Cinemas Lina Khatib, 2012-05-29 Storytelling in World Cinemas Vol 1 Forms is an innovative collection of essays that discuss how different cinemas of the world tell stories The book locates European Asian African and Latin American films within their wider cultural and artistic frameworks showing how storytelling forms in cinema are infused with influences from other artistic literary and oral traditions This volume also reconsiders cinematic storytelling in general highlighting the hybridity of national forms of storytelling calling for a rethinking of African cinematic storytelling that goes beyond oral traditions and addressing films characterised by non narration This study is the first in a two volume project with the second focusing on the contexts of cinematic storytelling

Narration in the Fiction Film David Bordwell, 2013-09-27 In this study David Bordwell offers a comprehensive account of how movies use fundamental principles of narrative representation unique features of the film medium and diverse story telling patterns to construct their fictional narratives

Hollywood Aesthetic Todd Berliner, 2017 Hollywood makes the most widely successful pleasure giving artworks the world has ever known The industry operates under the assumption that pleasurable aesthetic experiences among huge populations translate into box office success With that goal in mind Hollywood has systematized the delivery of aesthetic pleasure packaging and selling it on a massive scale In Hollywood Aesthetic Todd Berliner accounts for the chief attraction of Hollywood cinema worldwide its entertainment value The book examines films such as City Lights and Goodfellas that have earned aesthetic appreciation from both fans and critics But it also studies some curious outliers cult films and celebrated Hollywood experiments such as The Killing and Starship Troopers And it demonstrates that even ordinary popular films from Tarzan and His Mate to Rocky III as well as action blockbusters like Die Hard and The Dark Knight offer aesthetic pleasure to mass audiences Hollywood

Hollywood's Last Golden Age Jonathan Kirshner, 2012-11-15 Between 1967 and 1976 a number of extraordinary factors converged to produce an uncommonly adventurous era in the history of American film The end of censorship the decline of the studio system economic changes in the industry and demographic shifts among audiences filmmakers and critics created an unprecedented opportunity for a new type of Hollywood movie one that Jonathan Kirshner identifies as the seventies film In Hollywood's Last Golden Age Kirshner shows the ways in which key films from this period including Chinatown Five Easy Pieces The Graduate and Nashville as well as underappreciated films such as The Friends of Eddie Coyle Klute and Night Moves were important works of art in continuous dialogue with the political social personal and philosophical issues of their times These seventies films reflected the era's social and political upheavals the civil rights movement the domestic consequences of the Vietnam war the sexual revolution women's liberation the end of the long postwar economic boom the Shakespearean saga of the Nixon Administration and Watergate Hollywood films in this brief exceptional moment embraced a new aesthetic and a new approach to storytelling creating self consciously gritty character driven explorations of moral and narrative ambiguity Although the rise of the blockbuster in the second half of the 1970s largely ended Hollywood's embrace of more challenging films Kirshner argues that seventies filmmakers showed that it was possible to combine commercial entertainment with serious explorations of politics society and characters interior lives

Houston, We Have a Narrative Randy Olson, 2015-09-15 Communicate more effectively about science by taking a page from Hollywood and improving your storytelling skills Ask a scientist about Hollywood and you'll probably get eye rolls But ask someone in Hollywood about science and they'll see dollar signs

Moviemakers know that science can be the source of great stories with all the drama and action that blockbusters require That's a huge mistake says Randy Olson Hollywood has a lot to teach scientists about how to tell a story and ultimately how to do science better With Houston, We Have a Narrative he lays out a stunningly simple method for turning the dull into the dramatic Drawing on his unique background which saw him leave his job as a working scientist to launch a career as a filmmaker Olson first diagnoses the problem When scientists tell us about their work they pile one moment and one detail atop another moment and another detail a stultifying procession of and and and What we need instead is an understanding of the basic elements of story the narrative structures that our brains are all but hardwired to look for which Olson boils down brilliantly to And But Therefore or ABT At a stroke the ABT approach introduces momentum And conflict But and resolution Therefore the fundamental building blocks of story As Olson has shown by leading countless workshops worldwide when scientists eyes are opened to ABT the effect is staggering suddenly they're not just talking about their work they're telling stories about it And audiences are captivated Written with an uncommon verve and enthusiasm and built on principles that are applicable to fields far beyond science Houston We Have a Narrative has the power to transform the way science is understood and appreciated and ultimately how it s done The Thirty-six Dramatic Situations Georges Polti,1917 The Art of Immersion: How the Digital Generation Is Remaking Hollywood, Madison Avenue, and the Way We Tell Stories Frank Rose,2012-03-05 This is a field guide to the visionaries and the fans who are reinventing the art of storytelling
